

nEW fREQUENCIES is a new studio project of Robert Schroeder, that, exactly like his D.MO publications, is a planned release as a series. The German musician occupies, since the 80's, nationally and internationally, the foremost popularity beside bands like Tangerine Dream, Jean-Michel Jarre, Klaus Schulze and Kraftwerk. He celebrated his largest success with the project Double Fantasy. After a seven year creative break, Robert Schroeder could convert his comeback successfully with Lambert Ringlage's label Spheric Music in 2005. Since than, he has published regularly, new productions such as SphereWare, Taste It or 30 Years After.

Now, Robert Schroeder offers a new series project that is the result of passionate studio work with PC and keyboard. nEW fREQUENCIES is Schroeder's 10th album release on Spheric Music and supplies something other music, than no one knows or expects from Robert. The music prefers particularly analogue sounds and is sequencer based, it is however, also more rhythmic and with higher BPM values. This „spicy“ electronic music, Schroeder would like to publish in the future, additionally as his own series, within his regular solo productions.

nEW fREQUENCIES Vol.1 offers electronic sounds of the newest generation. On this album you can find dancable tracks and also experimental and spherical tracks. Voice samples and galactic soundscapes round the overall view to a postmodern music production. A specified studio project, that is different in composition and production sound to the standard. Whoever likes Cafe Del Mar, Massive Attack or Faithless, will also like nEW fREQUENCIES.

nEW fREQUENCIES extends horizon and blood veins and is music for clubs, discos and at home - for dancing, chill out and enjoyment ... much pleasure.
